Our President's Message

Dear HMC Resident, On September 11, 2001, almost 21 years ago, 246 people went to sleep in preparation for their morning ights. 2,606 people went to sleep in preparation for work in the morning. 343 -re-ghters went to sleep in preparation for their morning shift. 60 police ocers went to sleep in preparation for morning patrol. 8 paramedics went to sleep in preparation for the morning shift.

They all died heroes. The one thing we can all do is recognize their lives were not lost in vain. I ask you to join me in vowing to "never forget" and to continue living our lives stronger and more uni-ed. In memory of 9-1-1, Hunt Military Communities and Hunt Heroes Foundation is once again hosting the Patriot Essay Contest. This is open to any child between the ages of 8-18. We are looking to read the personal reflections from children who understand and embrace the importance of patriotism, even though they never experienced the tragedy of 9-1-1. Children wishing to submit their essay can do so at www.huntheroesfoundation.org Submissions are due no later than September 7th. Winners will be announced on September 9th. As always, thank you for allowing us to serve you

Semper Fidelis,

Brian Stann
CEO Hunt Military Communities

September is National Preparedness Month. Are you and your family ready for emergencies?

According to Ready.gov, there are 5 phases of emergency management:

1. Prevention. Prevention focuses on preventing hazards from occurring, whether they are natural, technological or caused by humans. ...
2. Mitigation. Mitigation is the effort to reduce loss of life and property by lessening the impact of disasters and emergencies. ...
3. Preparedness. ...
4. Response. ...
5. Recovery..

Where do I start? Visit Ready.gov for information and resources you may need to assist you and your family in making sure you are prepared and ready for power outages and natural disasters like floods, ice storms, and tornados and more. They have checklists to print that tell you how to make an emergency plan and ways to practice those plans with your family.
